Insight:
St. Luke's staff continually strive to be role models and to actively live our faith and provide witness every day to our students. St. Luke's spirit is a true reflection of the parable of the Prodigal Son: just as the father welcomed his son home, the staff and the students welcome each other to share in the beauty of the Catholic faith. St. Luke's exemplifies, "Leave Not One Heart Behind".

Insights

- 93.6% of our stakeholders agree that St. Luke's students are engaged in what they are learning at school. Particularly noteworthy, 94% of our parents agree. We strive to meet our students needs with Reader and Writer Workshop principles applied in all of our English classes and a full range of science and math classes are offered in each campus provided by the Centre for Learning@Home, our online school. Through a variety of classes offered both live and online, students can pursue their interests and this increases engagement. Students and staff utilize our rich libraries, offering a wide variety of literature.
- St. Luke's is an incredible 8.9% above the provincial average . The staff supports students who have very specific learning needs with love and innovative programming. Parents often report they and their children feel a sense of peace and a warm, safe, and welcoming presence during intakes and that feeling only increases once they are enrolled.
- At 16.1% above the provincial average, 96% of St. Luke's stakeholders agree that students have access to the appropriate supports and services at school. Students are accepted and welcomed regardless of previous school experiences and have access to counselling within our school and referrals to outside agencies when necessary. Individual program planning is key for every student at St. Luke's.
